“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the lost of your dear loved one. It is during times like these that we can find comfort in God's word such as the scripture at John chapter 5 verses 28, 29 where Jesus said "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." Yes, Jesus Christ promised that all those in God's memory will be resurrected.

He was my ex husband. A wonderful man.

“ My uncle is someone who I believed loved life to the fullest. He loved his friends, his family, and anyone who was fortunate enough to have met him. Every time I talked with, Uncle Al always supported me. Through good times and bad times, he was one of my strongest supporters. I will truly miss him.

“ My favorite memories about Al is his laughter and jokes! No matter what his struggles were, he ALWAYS had a smile, a joke and a laugh that would bring you out of your moments of despair and make you laugh; even if it was just of a second!!

“ You have my deepest sympathies on the loss of your family member. I know that it has a tough few years in reference to those that you have lost in that short span of time. May God be with you and those you love during your time of bereavement. Remember him and all the good things about him will be held in your heart. God bless you all.

“ Condolences to the family and may Jehovah bless you during this difficult time. I am adding a scripture that will bring comfort to you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

You have my deeest symphathy.
