“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sadly, we all go through this heartbreaking experience sooner or later, and we feel so powerless knowing nothing we can say or do can bring our loved one back to us. We miss them so very much. God never desired sickness, violence or death for the human race, and soon he will put an end to this sorrow. 1st Corinthians 15:26 promises: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Will we ever see our loved ones again? According to Jehovah's word we will indeed see them again, because he has promised that through his son, Jesus, the dead will be ressurected back to life. John 5:28,29. Oh what indescribable joy we will have when we see them alive again. Such tragedies that people go through now such as poverty, sickness, violent crime, wars, and natural disasters; such as what recently occurred in Haiti will be gone forever, because God has promised a new world of peace and security for all of earth's inhabitants. 2nd Peter 3:13, Psalm 37:10,11,29. Even the memory of this tragic life will be erased, because Isaiah 65:17 promises: "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." May these wonderful promises bring joy to your hearts, and may your cherished memories shared with Allen help you to cope with his loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
