

Allen Thor McClendon

January 15, 1962 - July 9, 2011

ALLAN THOR McCLENDON, son of Samuel Sr. and Mattie McClendon, Allan was born on January 15, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. He went to sleep on July 9, 2011.

He attended Baltimore Public Schools and graduated from Francis M. Woods Senior High. He worked at the Baltimore City Department of Social Services.

Allan was a humble and faithful servant to the Lord. He was introduced to Christ at an early age. He was so encouraged by Christ's love, he committed himself to him through baptism. His favorite scripture was Hebrew 12:6 For whom the LORD loveth He chasteneth, And scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

He joined the Seventh Day Adventist Church in June of 1992. he was happy to be apart of the Lord's service where he was a devoted Deacon, Choir member of the Melodies of Truth, Male Chorus and the Sanctuary Choir. He also enjoyed swimming, skating and exercising.

Allan eased other heartaches by setting aside his own. He had a sympathetic and empathetic personality and always kept a smile on her face. He had an engaging and outgoing personality. Allan had an outgoing approach to life and was very family oriented with a keen insight.

Seventeen years ago, he met and married the love of his life, Michele McClendon. He enjoyed spending time with his grandsons.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his wife Michele McClendon, two daughters, Wyvonne Williams (Jeremiah Sr.) and Sheena McClendon, two grandsons, Marvin Hooper Jr. and Jeremiah Williams, Jr., parents Samuel Sr. and Mattie McClendon, two sisters, Regina Perry (Alphonso Sr.) and Wanda Johnson, five brothers: Samuel Jr., Andrew McClendon (wife Diana), Erwin Johnson, William Baker and Donnell Ridley. One niece, Alicia Perry three nephews: Michael Harris, Alphonso Jr. and Shawn Perry, father-in-law, David Parker, Sr., Mother-in-law, Hilda Parker, two sister-in-law, Mary and Carol Parker, two brother-in-laws, David Jr. and Anthony Parker and a host of relatives and friends.
