

Allen Phillips

April 15, 1951 - January 10, 2023

ALLEN PHILLIPS began his life's journey on April 15, 1951 in Battleboro, North Carolina. He was born to the late Nannie L. Phillips and Charlie Brown. He departed this life on Tuesday afternoon, January 10, 2023 with his sister Mazie and brother Tommie by his side.

Allen graduated from the Baltimore City Public School System. He was blessed with two children and lived in the Baltimore City area. He worked for many years at the US Postal Service.

After he received his ASE Certification from Lincoln Tech, he worked at Montgomery Wards Auto Service for many years until the company closed. He then began as a driver with Rapid and later worked at Broadway Services as a driver until he retired. While at Broadway Services, he received numerous awards for being a safe driver and providing excellent service.

Allen loved to wear his suits, even when he attended high school. He was a big sports fan and enjoyed many phone conversations about football/baseball games with his family and friends. Allen loved and was so proud of his children and grandchildren. He always required his children to do their best to excel in their school studies.

Allen had a great love for his family and friends. He loved to attend family reunions, super bowl parties, or hang out at the house of his sister and brother-in-law (his other brother) for a card game of spades. Allen will always be remembered for his smile and jokes. He made family gatherings extra special whenever he would bring his famous barbeque and spareribs.

Allen was preceded in death by his mother and father Nannie L. Phillips and Charlie Brown, and his sister Carolyn A. Phillips.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his children, Twonetta Underwood (Derigus) and Yolanda Murray (Thomas III); three grandchildren; on granddaughter-in-law; two brothers, Johnnie Phillips and Tommie Phillips, both of Baltimore, MD; one sister, Mazie Jennings (McArthur Sr.); ex-wife, Sylvia Phillips; a special and dedicated friend, Joanne Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends
