“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My sympathy is extended to the family for your loss. May God comfort you with the sure hope of the resurrection, the only remedy for death. Daniel 12:2 says, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." We can put our confidence in Jehovah's promises whom the Bible speaks of as a God who cannot lie. Heb 6:18. So soon instead of tears of sorrow, we will be shedding tears of joy when our loved ones awaken from the dead. Keep these promises close to your heart as you reflect on your precious memories.##imported-begin##R Johnaonr##imported-end##
