

Allie Swilling

March 3, 1957 - November 4, 2019

ALLIE "NITA" SWILLING was born on March 3, 1957 in Hartwell, Georgia to the late Allie J. Swilling and the late Clifford Swilling Sr. She departed this life on November 4, 2019.

Allie was born in Georgia but was raised in Baltimore where she received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. During this time she gave birth to her daughter Ethel.

She loved her coffee, donut sticks and peanut chews, making foods from scratch like her homemade biscuits and gravy or her flower cakes, which her granddaughter always thought were "poor peoples pancakes."

Allie spent the last year of her life around her daughter and sister. Although there aren't any photographs to remember her, the memories that her family and friends have of her will live on forever.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Ethel Swilling; sister, Cynthia Jones; two brothers, Clifford Swilling Jr. and Andre Swilling; three grandchildren, Josetta, Towanda and Joseph; four great-grandchildren, Tamira, Kamron, Josiah and Syed; two nieces, Tanita and Regina; her nephew, Daniel; and a sister from another mother, Marcia. She also leaves her lifelong companion Rosaline as well as a host of other family and friends.
