

Alma H. Davis

January 11, 1925 - August 19, 2019

ALMA HENRIETTA DAVIS, the daughter of the late Arthur and Susie Conway, Sr. was born in Rhodesdale, Maryland on January 11, 1925. She departed this life on Monday, August 19, 2019 at the Northwest Hospital in Randallstown, Maryland.

Alma was educated in the public schools of Dorchester County. After graduating from the Frederick Douglass St Clair High School, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland to live with Bertha, a cousin.

Alma began working at the Continental Can Company where she met and later married Edward (Mickey) Farmer. From this union they had one daughter, Kym. Edward and Alma enjoyed bowling. They were the team to beat at the Lafayette Bowling Lanes. After ending her employment with the Continental Can Company, Alma began working with the Baltimore City Public School System where she remained until her retirement in 1988.

Alma was a faithful member of Bethel A.M.E. located on Druid Hill Ave. She later became a member of First Christian Community Church, after marrying James Davis on Valentines Day in 1980. They were active members for over twenty years. Alma served on the Senior Choir and Dave served as a Trustee until the decline of their health.

Together they were able to travel throughout the USA and abroad, such as Hawaii, Spain and cruising the Caribbean.

Anyone that knew Alma, knew that she was a SPORTS FANATIC On Sundays, dinner was prepared before going to Church for Sunday football!!!! Oriole baseball was not the same without ice tea and pound cake. Best of all, there was Tiger Woods! She even missed the family BBQ because he was playing in his red shirt that day--and she was at the BBQ.

She was a loving mother and grandmother. She wanted her family to have opportunities that would enrich their lives and hope that they would achieve their life goals. Nana, as she was affectionately known, was gracious, sweet, loving, and devoted to all of her family and friends. She was known as Ellis Island to her siblings. When they left home to begin their independence, her home was the first destination. She was truly a woman of GOD.

Alma leaves to cherish wonderful memories of their lives together: Kym Farmer, her daughter; Regis Tucker, her grandson; her sisters, Elizabeth Jackson, Dorothy Farrate (Orzie) Thelma Gaddy, Gloria Stewart (Charles), Carolyn Green (Jacob); her brothers, Vernon Conway and Ronald Conway; host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
