

Alma Moses-Johnson

October 18, 1934 - December 16, 2017

ALMA MOSES-JOHNSON was born on October 18, 1934, in Darlington, South Carolina to Emma Moses and Willie Moses. She departed this life on Saturday, December 16, 2017.

Alma gave her life to Christ at an early age. She loved going to church and singing! Her favorite gospel song was "Sent It Up To Prayer" with her little backup singers, Lucille, Martha and Willamae.

Affectionately known as "Dunk" (given by Lucille) and "Little Lady" (given by Little Johnny)- Alma loved having family gatherings, cooking and playing her tambourine! She also enjoyed going to gospel concerts and watching "her" soap operas and western movies.

Whenever she was feeling down her grandson, Mikey, could always put a smile on her face.

Alma made a living as a domestic homemaker. She married the late Bert Johnson and out of that union-they had eight children.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Bert Johnson; brother, William Moses; sister, Emma Robinson; daughter, Lucille Johnson; son, Thomas Bert Johnson; granddaughter, Lucretia Johnson and great-grandson Jamari Tee

Taylor.

Alma leaves to mourn: her sister, Mabelle Nettles; four daughters, Glenda, Ellouise, Martha and Williamae; two sons, Howard (Bernadette) and Johnny (Viola); nine grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; three great, great-grandchildren; daughter-in-law, Benita Johnson (Thomas); one God daughter, Betty Jean J. Rumth; and a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.
