

Almay Whitfield Wallace

April 25, 1927 - January 1, 2018

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them that love his appearing. "

ALMAY W. WALLACE was born April 25, 1927, to the Late Willie Whitfield and Mary Smith in Greene County, North Carolina. She moved to Richmond, Virginia with her family while still a young child.

Almay accepted Christ at an early age and later joined Community Church of God in Christ. Almay received her formal education in the Richmond Public Schools. After graduation, she worked as an Environmental Services Specialist at Medical College of Virginia, where she later retired.

In her prime years, she enjoyed singing and dancing and was well known as one of the "Whitfield Sisters". She met and married the love of her life and long time companion, George "Goodie" Wallace. To this union was born seven children. Her smile and laughter was heartfelt throughout her family, friends and community. Her hugs and kisses would melt everyone 's heart.

On January 1, 2018, at the sweet age of 90, God's chariot swung low and carried her home.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, brother, Clarence Bynum; and her two sons, William Johnson, Jr. and George Wallace, Jr.

Almay leaves to cherish her memory, her children, Agnes Wallace DeLoatch(Anthony), Tyree Wallace, Deborah Wallace Hiraldo, Pamela Cooke(Clifton), and Sherry Wallace; 21 grandchildren, 52 great grandchildren, 15 great-great grandchildren, sister, Mary Powell; a host of nieces, nephews, devoted daughter in-law, Virginia Wallace; sisters in-law, Edna and Arlene Wallace, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sympathy for the loss of Mrs Almay. Please find comfort in precious memories shared over the years, as well as this Bible verse found at John6:40. Jesus said: "For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who recognizes the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life, and I will resurrect him on the last day." May you find much encouragement in the holy scriptures, which gives us strength when it is needed. Revelations 21:3-5
