

Almeda Allen Crossin

March 19, 1932 - April 25, 2010

Almeda Allen Crossin, of Richmond, Virginia was born to the late Annie and Charles Allen on March 19, 1932. She was the ninth of ten children. She was preceded in death by her siblings: Bertha Smith, Archie Allen, Zack Allen, Gladys Ross, Flossie Johnson, Charlie Allen, Dabney Allen and Joyce Ann Allen Payne; one son, Calvin Crossin; two grandchildren, Tehron Crossin and Isis Burroughs. At an early age, Almeda accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior by being baptized at First African Baptist Church. Even though she visited other churches during her adult years, it was evident that she truly loved the Lord and she worshipped him faithfully. After graduating from Maggie L. Walker High School, Almeda met and married the late William H. Crossin Sr. They remained married until his death in 1986. Almeda's greatest passion in life was her family, especially her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She took care of them all, showering them with unconditional love. Whether it was hosting a family gathering or a private party with friends, Almeda took pride in cooking and serving those she loved. Sophisticated, witty and never one to bite her tongue, Almeda always said what was on her mind. She always said "mind your business" in the most affectionate and comical way. Her most favorite terms of endearment were "Hi Doll Baby" and "Hey Suga". Almeda was blessed with a love for people, a heart of gold and an incredible zest for life. On Sunday, April 25, 2010, God wrapped His arms around Almeda, whispered in her ear and led her to the Pearly Gates of Heaven. She leaves to cherish her memory, two daughters, LaFon Thomas

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ *Please accept my condolences. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
