

Almeta H. Bell

December 2, 1945 - August 29, 2017

Our beloved Almeta H. Bell, 71, earned her wings and was called to her heavenly home on August 29, 2017. She was born December 2, 1945 to the late Charles and Erma Hargrove of Richmond, Virginia. She was preceded in death by her husband, Joseph S. Bell; 4 brothers, Charles, Alvin, Alexander and Phillip; and 1 sister, Mozelle Hargrove.

Almeta was a native of Richmond where she attended Armstrong High School. She worked for the Medical College of Virginia and after 30 years of dedicated service she retired.

She was a member of Community Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Joseph Cotman. Almeta loved the Lord and all of His glory. She was best known for giving advice. She was a second mother to the children of Fairfield and Creighton Court, and to all who crossed her path. Almeta made an impact on many of them. She was kind-hearted, generous, thoughtful and very outspoken. Almeta will be missed tremendously.

She leaves to cherish her memory three daughters, Denise Daniel (devoted son-in-law, Kenneth), Delores and Iris Hargrove; one son, Turner Hargrove; thirteen grandchildren, nineteen great-grandchildren; two sisters, Kathleen Campbell and Clinette B. Williams (Robert); one brother, Melvin Hargrove; a devoted aunt, Mary A Monroe; three devoted nieces, Lisa Hargrove, Rosalyn

W. Tyler (Thomas) and Zelma Davis; a devoted friend Lucille Coleman who she referred to as “Mother”; a devoted godson, Darry Johnson; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and caring friends.
