

Almeta Smack

March 29, 1940 - November 19, 2014

ALMETA RHYSPIA HICKS was born March 29, 1940 in Dover, Delaware to the late Albert Hicks and Bishop Fredericka Hicks. She departed this life suddenly on November 19, 2014 after a brief illness

. Almeta received her education in Dover, Delaware. In 1959, Almeta (Hicks) became Almeta Smack when she met and married Willie Smack in Selbyville, Delaware. From this union five children were born Ronald, Donald, Annette, Ricky and Margo. Almeta relocated to Baltimore Maryland in 1972 after the death of her husband Willie Smack

Almeta Smack was employed at St. Joseph's Hospital in Towson, Maryland from which she retired. She was also a member of the Echo House where she enjoyed assisting in taking care of the children in the After Care Program. As a young woman she became an Eastern Star member and she also enjoyed going to the voting polls where she was an election judge for many years. She enjoyed making things and some of her hobbies included making ceramics, baking cakes and pies, cooking food, planting flower, shopping and traveling with her daughter Margo. Because of Almeta' sassy and straight to the point attitude she made friends where ever she went. Her favorite color was "Red" which she wore every day. Her most enjoyable and unforgettable moments were cooking Sunday dinner for Margo. Almeta loved and cared for her children, grandchildren and great- grandchild until her death.

Almeta Smack was a member of Mount Zion Baptist Church in Baltimore City Maryland under the leadership of Pastor Mark Riddix III.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three children, two daughters Annette Hicks and Margo Satterfield (fiance Nesbit Buckson); one son, Ricky Hicks; one grandson, Donald Lee Hicks (three grandchildren preceded her in death Marvin, Renee, Ronnie); six great-grandchildren, Treyon Jones, Dayon Jones, Marvin Curtis, Dontray Hicks, Shaniya Smith and Shamar Hicks; two brothers, Charles Hicks of Ohio and Cleverland Hicks of Ocean City Maryland (two of her siblings preceded her in death); her twin sister, Myater Hicks and her brother, Albert Hicks; one aunt, Margo Allen (Uncle Allen) and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends that will miss her greatly.
