“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope this scripture give you much comfort. Revelation chapter 21:4; "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May God continue to strengthen you. Sincerely, C. Bain##imported-begin##Charlotte Bain##imported-end##

“ To the family: Losing a loved one is never easy so I send my regards to the family. I would also like to share the comfort I was given with you. I was reminded of the resurrections Jesus and his apostles performed in the past and promises to do again in the future to comfort us. They are found at Luke 7:11-16 and Luke 8:40-42, 49-56. The Almighty God promises that we can look forward to being reunited with our loved ones in the future here on earth at Acts 24:15 and Psalms 37:10,11 and 29. May you find comfort in these scriptures.##imported-begin##T. Taylor##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in Jehovah God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ To the family you have my condolences. May you attain the wonderful hope found in God's word the bible at Isa. 25:8 which shows that soon Jehovah God will swallow up death forever. This will be a wonderful time. Let this thought carry you through with hope and endurance in knowing that God cares.##imported-begin##Derek Farmer##imported-end##
