

Alonza Garland McCray

September 24, 1957 - January 4, 2017

Alonza McCray; was born September 24, 1957 to Louise and Robert McCray. Born and raised in Richmond, Virginia, he was a graduate of John Marshall High School. Shortly after, his love of music motivated him to start a music group with his best friend, Raymond "Bruh" Carter performing as a vocalist and playing numerous instruments. He was also quite a dancer, even danced on stage for Parliament Funkadelic.

Alonza's cooking skills were the highlight of any family gathering, even just a visit from the grandchildren. His kind heart, made him a magnet for many people and various animals such as swans, ferrets and a stingray (to name a few) earning him the nick-name Dr. Doolittle. He loved to travel with his wife, parents and children. An avid pool shooter, he also enjoyed fishing, crabbing and loved the beach where he resided for the latter half of his life.

January 4, 2017, Alonza was called home to the pearly gates of heaven. He leaves to cherish his memory wife, Lolita McCray; daughters, Zakiya, Porsche and Asia; mother-in-law, Lolita Glasper, brother, Robert McCray; sister-in-law, Zerita Crewe; godsons, Desmond and Duron; seven grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who loved him dearly.

“ Alonza/Alfonso/Razor:

As an official farewell, today, we pay tribute and homage to you as we reflect on your meaningful life and legacy. Notwithstanding your spiritual and physical transitioning, I want you to know that, from one generation to the next, your legacy and spirit will continue to live on through your family, friends, and associates.

With your demise, the world is missing an angel today. However, over time, all will become more accepting of your demise while never forgetting your influence on them. As such, you are still in the game.

Though I am unable to cite exactly when or how we first met or through whom our introduction was made, I want to THANK YOU for your brotherly friendship and love over the years. A true friend is not only one who will be present in a time of need but one who knows exactly when to sit on the sideline. You were such a FRIEND.

I will cherish our fun moments in the Music world, playing billiards (pool), traveling, crabbing, cooking and eating, and countless conversations. I will miss you immensely, Razor!

At this interval, your suffering, pain, and shading of tears have ended!
