“ My sheep respond to my voice, and I know who they are. They follow me, and I give them eternal rest. St. John 10:27-28 Many words are stated when we lose a loved one and friend. Mr. Alonzo B. Jones Jr. was a true friend. He and I were on the Chancel Choir at the Grace Presbyterian Church. I learned a lot about singing and choral music by simply sitting next to him in the bass section during choir rehearsals and worship services, I grew as a singer and chorister in my music ministry. As time progressed our mere acquaintance grew into a bond of friendship. Yes, God has taken Alonzo, but he shall ever live in my heart and memory. We are all God's children and every now and then he decides to take one of us. He uses what we call death to transport us to our eternal rest. We are simply transplanted to the Master's heavenly garden to ever bloom and grow for an eternal glory unto Him. We who believe are called to rest in the bosom of the Almighty: the creator of heaven, earth and all mankind. I remember hearing Alonzo lead the song, "O For A Faith," We all should have a faith In the Lord Jesus Christ that will never shrink, but one that will continue to increase as we grow in the knowledge and love of our Savior. I thank God for allowing me to meet Alonzo. God place each every one of us here for a season and we carry out the purpose and plan of God that is so divinely ordered. The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord! To the loved ones of Alonzo B. Jones Jr. I personally extend to you my deepest sympathy and heart felt love to each and everyone of you. It shall be my continuous prayer that God ever keep the wind to your back and the sun upon your face, moving you forward and closer in his love, grace, mercy and understanding!###imported-begin###Antonio N. “ I am sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. How comforting it is to know what Almighty God says in his Holy Scriptures at Isaiah 25:8, “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces...” May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Monica Rasaki##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.###imported-begin###Senita Swann###imported-end###

“ I am sorry that you loss one of your family members; Alonzo. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort your family. Revelation 21:4,5 and it reads...And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. And the One seated on the throne said: Look! I am making all things new. Also, he says, Write, because these words are faithful and true.”###imported-begin##JT Nunnally###imported-end##
