

Alonzo Lee Key III

February 8, 1983 - October 10, 2009

ALONZO LEE KEY III, born on February 8, 1983 in Baltimore, Maryland to Mattie Sellers and Alonzo Lee Key Sr., departed this life suddenly on Saturday, October 10, 2009. Alonzo was known to many as “Boogie” or “Boogie Boo” and later changed his name to “Woogie.” He was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Alonzo will be truly missed. He was a true humanitarian, a fun loving and determined person who always stood his ground, and a real cool dude whose smile could light up a room. Those who truly knew him at heart can reflect on things he valued the most. He had a special closeness to his twin niece Tavie. He was preceded in death by his father Alonzo Lee Key Sr. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Mattie Seller; stepmother, Yvonne Braham Key; grandfather, Eppa Chapman; fiancée, Aisa; son, Cawon Chatman and five stepchildren; three sisters, Alicia, Quintila, Beatrice; two brothers, Alonzo Jr., Jekai and two stepbrothers, Tremaine and Jermaine; two brothers-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

“ It's not a day that's goes by that I don't think about you. People tell me I should've been moved on and be over it but how can you when the love of your life is no longer here. I have not met a man like you and it is very hard replacing you. My children still speak of your name and you can't tell them that your not their dad to the point their real dads find it hard dealing with them. I know I could've never bring you back but I will always cherish our memories together may Allah make ur grave spacious and expect your good deeds over ur bad deeds. We will meet again my kind I love u my husband love yours truly your wife Asia

“ *I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death is never easy to cope with especially when it overtakes someone so young. May you find solace in Jehovah, the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4), and the promise that those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29).##imported-begin##C.
