

Althea Randall Bradby

May 28, 1915 - January 28, 2012

Althea Randall Bradby, the eldest daughter of the late Robert and Della Randall, was born on May 28, 1915 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 28, 2012 after a brief illness.

Althea received her education in the Baltimore City School System. After completing school, she left home to study her favorite interest, design and fashion. Althea was a lady of dignity and wit a real sense of style. She was known for her style of dress... "it had to be right or not at all".

Althea worked at the University of Maryland as a Librarian. After working there for many years, she retired.

Althea was a very spiritual person from childhood. She started her Christian journey at the New Union Baptist Church Number 1, until the church became New Union Baptist Church. She was a member of the Nurse's Unit, Women's Choir, Advisor of the Junior Missionaries and Advisors to the Junior Ushers.

Later, Althea married the love of her life, the late Lester Bradby on February 13, 1955. Although no children came from this union, she was known as mother to many. Althea took care of all in the children in the family and in the church. She and Lester had five goddaughters, Rosetta, Jeanette, Simona, Rhonda and Sonja.

Althea's favorite pastime was traveling. She traveled to Italy, Egypt, Canada, Greece and France! She made numerous friends every where she traveled. Althea was just a lovely, friendly person. She will be truly missed by everyone.

Althea will join her late husband, Lester Bradby, who preceded her in death.

She leaves to mourn: her only living sister, Delma Bennett; her dedicated caregivers, Luberta Jones, Sonja Smalls, Bryant and Della Rodgers; her five goddaughters, Rosetta Logan, Jeanette Randall, Simona Simmons, Rhonda Smith and Sonja Smalls; host of relatives, friends and church family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
