

Alton L. Newton

April 22, 1957 - May 2, 2003

Alton Lacey Newton, Jr. (Petey), son of Alton Lacey Newton, Sr. and the late Christine Newton, was born on April 22, 1957. He heroically departed this life on May 2, 2003. Petey was christened on September 1, 1957 and for many years-attended St. Peter Claver Church. Born in Baltimore, Petey was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. After leaving school, he held several positions in the work force. A loving and protective father, brother and friend, he was always willing and eager to help his family members. He was helping those cherished family members when he lost his life. He leaves to mourn: six children, Terrell, Alton L. III, Dominic, Quantez, Natasha and Natavien (the twins); three grandchildren, Sylvester, Jahaira and Antwan; father, Alton L. Newton Sr.; four sisters, Gloria Ball, Carolyn Newton, Velma Miller, Margaret Newton; two brothers, Jeffrey Newton and Rodney L. Newton; two brothers-in-law, James C. Miller and Jerome E. Ball; one uncle, John Weston Jr.; one aunt, Mary Smith; nephews, Donnell, Gary, Joey, Keith and Corey; four nieces, Christina, Arielle, Nicole, and Ashley; great-nieces, Destiny and Arionna; three great-nephews, Donnell II, Brandon and DeShawn; a very special friend, Senette Johnson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My Dearest Petey, We were fast friends, though we only met 2 years ago I always felt such a special friendship. Seems like we'd always see each other, when I needed a hug or a kind word. I'm so proud of you, what you accomplished, how you persevered. I'm not surprised that GOD called you HOME in such a Heroic Manor. Thanks, for the kindness you showed, the laughter you shared. Sorry I missed you B-day. I called back and left ya message, we were out of town. Please know I'll do my best to help out your girl and your babies. I won't say goodbye, I'll see ya in time, tell the "BIG GUY" hi. Put in a good word for me ~smile~ GOD SPEED Your buddy's Janet & Desi###imported-begin##Janet Wood###imported-end##

“ Alton I will miss you. It was such a pleasure knowing you. I am not surprised that you died helping your children and wife. I remember you always being so proud of your family. I know things were rough for you at times but you always appeared so strong. I am so sorry that we had not had the opportunity to get together prior to your death. I will miss you. For the family know that god is to smart to make mistakes and I will keep you in my prayers.##imported-begin##Marsha Clarke-Everette##imported-end##
