

Alton P. Smith

July 11, 1937 - May 13, 2004

Alton Parker Smith was born July 11, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland to Welton and Sarah Smith. He was the youngest of three brothers Ralph and the late Arnold Smith. Alton received his education from the Baltimore City Public School System. He enlisted in the military service where he received his honors and an honorable discharge. His employment included many jobs: Levindale, University Hospital, Abacus and Baltimore City Public Works. He really enjoyed working until his illness got the best of him. Alton, better known as Singlie and Smithy, was a happy, loving, kind person. He loved his family. He made numerous friends wherever he went. He loved dancing, music, special oldies-but-goodies, and jazz. Sometimes he liked to be alone and watch old movies. He had a special spot in his heart for Quincey and Price (his dogs). He leaves to mourn: two sons, Welton Smith and Derrick Smith (three sons, Maurice Smith, Garcia Coleman, and Roderick Coleman, preceded him in death); daughter, Tracy Coleman (daughter Tracy Smith preceded him in death); two special children, Gregory and Nettia (now deceased); one brother, Ralph Smith; one uncle, John Westley Garrison; one special cousin, Deborah Wilson; grandchildren, Rashad, Ke'ra, Shamia, Cherise, Sononika, Shamia Janay, Chere, Andre, Caprice, Cordelle, Coreise, Cornelius, William Terrell, and Jordyn; five great-grandchildren. He loved and cherished five special friends, Brenda Blackston, Priscilla Holland, Lisa Gilliam, Michelle Williams, Kimberly Smith and Romul Blancy who stood by him until the end. He also leaves many, many other relatives and friend.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family of Alton Smith: I'm sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Smith. Isaiah 33:24 speaks of a time when "...no resident will say 'i am sick...". Jehovah gives us this promise in the Bible.##imported-begin##Treynel Winston##imported-end##
