“ Dear Family:

I regret that I was unable to attend Alvin's service on Saturday. Unfortunately, flights from Boston to Baltimore were sold out. However, I will remember Alvin fondly. He always had a kind word to say and sometimes funny expressions to lighten the mood and make everyone smile. The last time I saw him was at my mother's funeral. I was saddened to hear that he was suffering in general but particularly on that day. I'm very thankful to Alvin, Kenneth and Debbie for attending the service at a time that was difficult for them. My prayers are with Kenneth and Debbie and the family at this time. Love, Gabrielle
