

Alvin Ingram

October 29, 1954 - October 13, 2021

Alvin Ingram was born on October 29, 1954 in Kinston, North Carolina to Thelma L. Harris and the late Jody Ham.

At an early age, Alvin became a Christian. He received his education where he attended John Marshall High School. He was employed at Vutex Printing Company as a devoted and dedicated machine operator in Richmond, Virginia. He later had to leave the company due to his health slowly starting to decline.

On Wednesday, October 13, 2021 at Memorial Regional Hospital in Hanover, Virginia Alvin transitioned to his heavenly home to join his loved ones before him. Alvin is preceded in death by his step-father, Elwood v. Harris, Sr. and his brother-in-law, Bernard Moore.

He leaves to cherish his memories to his son, Alvin Armstead of Richmond, VA; 2 grandchildren, 1 great-grandchild; his loving mother, Thelma L. Harris; two sisters, Ruby Moore and Hattie Ingram, both of Richmond, VA; two brothers, John (Shirley) Webb Harris and Elwood (Bridgett Morrow) Harris, all of Richmond, VA; three aunts, Pearly Royster of Philadelphia, PA, Patricia (Jack) Jones and Annie Mae Hall, both from Kinston, NC; five nephews, one niece, two great-nieces; one great-aunt, Hattie Mae Fuller; devoted friends, James Town, Kevin Bland, Kim Smith and Lucinda Armstead; along with a host of other relatives and dear caring friends.
