“ I wish your family much comfort and strength from the promise from God of a resurrection for the dead. Please read Acts 24,15, John 11:25, and Daniel 12,2. John 5:28,29 promises: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May it comfort you to know that Alvin is in God"s memory, and one day he will awaken to peaceful and happy conditions.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ God Bless the Brunson, I am shocked by Alvin's passing. We were childhood friends for years on Dukeland St--many fond memories of him and the Brunson Family. Alvin had a vision that I follow in the Balto Afro American paper for years. I admire his coolness and genuine concern for the community and the resurrection of Pennsylvania Ave----Rest In Peace-- Ernest of San Antonio Tx 210-679-8114 or 210 683-0562--I would have come home to see you off...just got the message on 4-13-08.##imported-begin##Rev Ernest E. “ Wanted to send a condolence letter to Alvin's family and not knowing their address decided to write here. I worked with Alvin when he was working for the State of Maryland's central personnel agency which was some time ago. However, I recall him as a gently spoken man who seemed both thoughtful and kind in a way that leaves an impression on others (this time on me). The other thing I remember most about him is that he had such a love for his family, which, as I recall, was/is quite large. If, these years later, I can remember the love he had for his family I can only imagine the love that his family has for him and it is this that prompts me to send sympathies for your loss. Blessings and comfort. Sincerely, Anita McCurley###imported-begin###Anita McCurley###imported-end##

“ To The Brunson Family, No one can describe the sorrow you must be feeling. Please accept our family's deepest sympathy. Our family remembers Alvin when he attended Whitestone Baptist Church and we saw him again during a Black History tour. God will bless you through these times - stay close to Him and He will see you through.###imported-begin###LaVen Chapman###imported-end##

“ Please accept our condolences for the loss of your loved one. We have received much comfort from the Bible over the years and we want to share it with you. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." It is our hope that you receive much comfort each time you read this from your copy of the Bible and think over it.##imported-begin##The Hill's##imported-end##

“ To the family: I remembered Alvin when he attend Whitestone Baptist Church. During our Church Black Heritage Tour last year,we stopped in his neighborhood and saw him working. Some of us on the bus remembered the times at Whitestone. Alvin will truly be missed. The great works & teachings he were doing for his community should never be forgotten. Remember, God will heal your heart, just keep your trust in him.##imported-begin##LaEunice Chapman##imported-end##

“ To the Brunson family. may the lord hold you in his everlasting love, grace and peace. Here we will find GOD's purpose and wisdom to continue on. In my acceptance of this truth, I feel great I had a chance to experience "Kirby's" energy, love, compassion for mankind and laughter. I am a better man for our oneness in friendship. I love you. D. “ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
