

Alvin S. Morgan Jr.

April 28, 1973 - May 6, 2012

On May 6, 2012 Alvin passed away due to natural causes. Alvin Morgan, affectionately known as Al, was born April 28, 1973 and lived in Baltimore, MD.

Alvin loved playing and watching sports and spending time with his brothers. He was also a devoted son and very close to his mother Betty Chapman. Alvin's friendly demeanor supported his ability to make friends with whomever he met.

He attended Job Corps to become a licensed carpenter. Alvin had a natural ability to design architectural buildings and homes. His creative artistic ability was the impetus for his interest in carpentry. He worked as a contractor for various employment agencies.

At an early age Alvin accepted Jesus as Lord and Savior. He was later baptized at New Psalmist Baptist Church. He looked to the Lord for strength in the time of weakness.

No matter the challenges Alvin endured he would always say "I am still alive, I am still here." Alvin will always be alive in our hearts.

Survivors include: his parents, Alvin Morgan Sr. and Betty Chapman; twin brothers, Ashley and Ashton Morgan; wife Barbara Morgan; companion, Windsom McKenzie; best friends, Cory Clacken and Julie Seibles; goddaughter, Katlin and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Betty, we are sorry for your loss. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Hylton and Diethra

Diethra King - May 16, 2012 at 05:28 PM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
