“ To the family and friends, I wish to express my condolences. It is so heartbreaking to lose someone we love in death, I know, because I have lost many loved ones. May it comfort you to know that this is not Gods purpose for mankind. One day he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, according to John 5, 28,29. Until that beautiful day of the ressurection, please be comforted by your precious memories of your loved one, which death cannot erase.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hi Parker family ! !May you all take comfort in knowing that others care. Losing a love one in death is hard. Our heavenley father wanted mankind to live forever. the bible tell us why we get sick and die. At Roman 5:12 there is the reason why we die.We can have a hope of seeing our loved ones again, At Rev.21:3,4 ,there no more pain from sorrow and tears, death. I hope these few thoughts have been uplifting to you all. My conolences. Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
