

Amariah Dennis Johnson

April 26, 1941 - October 23, 2013

AMARIAH DENNIS JOHNSON JR., eldest child of the late Amariah Johnson and Hannah Bell Johnson, was born on April 26th, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on October 23rd, 2013.

In 1959, he completed his education at Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Soon after, he was drafted into the United States Army where he was stationed in Germany. After completing his tour of duty, he would soon begin working for the Social Security Administration, where he worked for over forty years.

From his union to Jessie Whitaker, one child was born; their son Che'o.A.D." or "Dennis," depending on whom you spoke with, joined New Shiloh Baptist Church where he was a devoted and faithful member. Wherever the Lord guided his path, he made numerous friends and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him

He was always a true friend and loved his son and grandson dearly.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his son, Che'o Johnson (Regina Johnson); grandson, Khamani Amariah Johnson; sister, Evelyn Elizabeth Saunders (Lester Saunders) — (siblings who preceded him in death, Vashti Johnson and Katherine Johnson-Maxwell); niece, Robbin; three nephews, Nathan,

Robert (Mann) and Rian; and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, other relatives and friends.

“A MILLION TIMES” A million times we’ve needed you, a million times we’ve cried,

If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died.

If all the world was ours to give, we would give it yes, and more,

To see you coming up the steps, and walking through the door.

To hear your voice and see your smile, to sit and talk a while,

To be with you that same old way, would be our fondest day.

A heart of gold stopped beating, two smiling eyes closed to rest,

God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best
