

Amie D. Thornton

June 21, 1915 - May 18, 2005

Amie D. Thornton, Dee as she was fondly called, was the last of five children born to the late Marshall and Mary McGhee. She was brought into this life on June 12, 1915 in Chedister, Arkansas. On May 17, 2005 at 3:00 a.m. she entered peacefully into eternal rest at the Manor Care Nursing Home, Baltimore, Maryland. Amie was educated in Chedister, Arkansas and received her college degree at Little Rock Arkansas Baptist College. After relocating to Baltimore she was employed at Glenn L. Martin where she constructed airplanes for several years and also worked various other jobs. Amie loved to cook and bake and was always willing to give of her time and resources to anyone in need. She enjoyed going to the racetrack, playing cards, watching baseball games, fishing and crabbing, and most of all she loved spending time with her godchildren. She was married to the late William Ernest Thornton. She leaves to cherish her memory: her godchildren, Marcus Moore, Sr., Marla Moore, Theodrick Robinson, Marcus Moore, Jr., and Toryarna Moore; two nieces, Mary Jean Harding and Barbara Jean Carter; two stepchildren, Felisha Little and Ernest Thornton; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Ms. Moore, I understand that you were a friend and caretaker to Aunt Amie. Aunt Amie and my mother were married to the Thornton brothers. Always remember healing happens slowly over weeks, months, years, and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##Brenda Royster and the Thornton and Lewis Family##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
