Aminah was an angel and brought so much joy into the lives of her family in the short time we were blessed to have her. She had a power possessed enchantment about herself. Her eyes were bright and she had a smile that would pierce your heart.

She loved listening to her mother's voice attentively as she would as she would read to her Dr. Suess's “Green Eggs” and Ham”. She also like to pacify herself with her favorite binky.

Aminah was smart, strong-minded and had a sense of wisdom beyond her years. Aminah was a gift on loan to us all, and will always be in our memories and in our hearts.

“ Such a precious young one will dearly be missed as she now rests from life's challenges. Her toils and struggles are over for now. Her steps made in life may not have been many but her being born was a blessing. Treasure all of the smiles, joys, and happy times spent together. I extend to all of you dear family member and friends who are mourning this sad loss my deepest sympathy. Words are difficult to say at such a time when the tiny little feet has cease to move. May the love and prayers of many build a bridge over trouble waters and lead you to some comfort. In time your heart will heal but it will be a slow process. In the bible there are nine resurrections mentioned and they are there to show that the enemy death will also come to an end. Jesus Christ died and was resurrected and made it possible for those who are now asleep in death to have the hope of a resurrection on earth. Knowing that one day she will appear alive and well to be with you all again is a hope that the bible guarantees. When you all meet again it will be a time for great love, embracing, and much happiness. Revelation 21:3,4 promises that death will be done away and life will be enjoyed at that time forever. May you find comfort, love, and care from this message of condolence.

“ There are no words that I can say that will ease the pain of the death of your little girl but I hope these words from God's word the Bible will help. ".....And Jehovah God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." (Revelation 21:.3, 4) So sorry for your loss!!!

“ I write you with heartfelt condolences at this sad time. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word The Bible. The Bible promises us at (John 5:28,29) "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever peaceful paradisaic conditions. What that can mean for you ? Comfort when loved ones die. -2 Corinthians 1:3,4) ? Freedom from a morbid fear of death.- Hebrews 2:15. ? A real hope of being reunited with your loved ones.-John 5:28,29. May Jehovah God of all comfort be with you.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he ressurected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.
