

Amos A. Ham

February 9, 1951 - May 24, 2016

In Psalms 34:19, the Bible promises that, "Many are the afflictions of the righteous but the Lord delivereth him out of all them." Taking God at his Word, Amos Andrew Ham, departed this life to be with the Lord on Tuesday, May 24, 2016 at the age of 65. The ninth child of the late Deacon and Deaconess January and Lucile (Brown) Ham. Amos was born on February 9, 1951 in Baltimore, MD and raised with love and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ.

He accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Mount Winans First Baptist Church, under the leadership of the Reverend Samuel Ray. He sang on the Junior Choir there and later was a teacher at the Vacation Bible School for many years.

He received his formal education in the Baltimore, Maryland School System and graduated from Loyola High School in 1969 where he excelled as a running back in football. After high school he attended the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Maryland in College Park, where he received the degree of a Bachelor of Science in Zoology.

He worked as a Manager in the families' businesses, both his father's and also his sister's.

Amos was preceded in death by four siblings: Margaret, Alexander, James,

Matthew, and his favorite nephew George. Amos leaves to cherish his memory; his brother Joseph (Alice) and his sisters: Hattie, Rosalie, and Ineitha (Carson); also mourning his loss are his nieces Michele (Scott) and Sheena; his nephews Kevin and Albert (Monique), and their children, and a host of other relatives and friends.

He had a special relationship with his niece, Michele, who developed a love of theoretical physics, comic books, and science fiction (especially Star Trek) under his tutelage. Amos thought that his sister, Rose was Super Woman (and he may have been right!). He loved sports, especially football, and could always enjoy banana pudding and a good chocolate cake.
