

Amy Nesbit

May 11, 1915 - August 18, 2012

Amy Blackmon Nesbit was born May 11, 1915 in Lancaster, South Carolina to Baxter and Lelia Blackmon.

Amy was educated in the public school system in Lancaster.

Her religious training began at an early age at the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church. She committed her life to Christ and was baptized by her pastor Rev. E. Riley.

In 1936, Amy met and married Vernon Nesbit. Their first son Robert was born in South Carolina. As a family they moved to Baltimore and were blessed with three additional children, Audrey, James, and Charles.

Amy joined the Peoples Christian Church under the leadership of the Rev. C. Edward Brown. When the church changed its name to Memorial Baptist Church, Amy continued her long and dedicated membership under Rev. Angus A. Smith, and present pastor Rev. Calvin E. Keene.

Being a missionary was her passion. She served faithfully in this capacity until her health prevented her from continuing. Amy looked forward to performing her duties as a missionary and telling everyone who listened, "how good her God was."

She loved music. Even as her health failed, she was always humming the hymns of the church. Amy spoke to God daily. If you entered her room, you would hear her whispering. When asked “Who are you talking to.,” she simply replied, “God.” Saturday night, in the quietness of her room, God held her hand and Amy slowly and peacefully slipped away.

To cherish her memory are two sons, Robert and Charles (Mable); seven grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren; one brother, Purnell; and many other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
