

Andre B. Clark

June 28, 1954 - March 13, 2011

ANDRE BRENT CLARK, went to rest on Sunday, March 13, 2011 at Sinai Hospital. Andre was born out of the union of Shirley Snowden and the late Horace Clark on June 28, 1954 in Los Angeles, California.

He was raised in Baltimore, Maryland and baptized at Saint Ann's Catholic Church at a young age. Andre was educated in Baltimore Catholic and City Public School, he graduated from Carver Vocational Technical High School. Following his graduation, he went to work in the fields of mechanical maintenance, steel mill labor, construction and education at Bethlehem Steel Corporation, McDevitt Street, Daniels Construction Company, Saint Michael and All Angels Church, and the Baltimore City Public Schools.

Andre was united in marriage to Regina A. Thomas and from this union they were blessed with the birth of Andreia Brentelly Clark. Much later in life, Andre and his late Tammy A. Brown were blessed with the birth of Summer Ashcore Clark.

Andre will be remembered by many- mainly because he seemed to know everybody! He was a friendly outgoing person and was always the life of the party. He had a way of finding humor in almost any situation and could make everyone chuckle and bring a smile to their face. Andre was passionate about many things, but especially his children, his clothes, and good food.

Andre also had a passion for writing and he wrote beautiful, heart-felt poetry. His family and friends will miss him dearly.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Regina; daughter, Andreia Nelson and Summer Clark; mother, Shirley Clark; son-in-law, David E. Nelson, Jr.; grandchildren, Toneeshia, Takerra and Davaughn; great-grandchildren, Davonne and Arreka; aunts, Judy and Gwen; uncle, Timm; nieces, Tara, Karla, India and Aiyona, nephew, Markus; cousins, Renee, Gilbert, Priscilla, Darrin, William, Bryan, Wendell and Deborah; his closest friends, Alethia, 'B', Belinda and Zach; and a host of other beloved relatives and friends, and his faithful and devoted cats, Chole and Taylor.
