

Andre Gwynn

February 2, 1958 - January 25, 2003

Andre Mango Gwynn, son of Forest C. and Annie Bell Gwynn, was born on February 2, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 25, 2003. At an early age, Andre was baptized at First Abyssinia Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend John D. Robinson. Andre attended Sunday school and ushered there as well. Andre received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He was a graduate of Mergenthaler High School. Once he completed his education, Andre volunteered for the U.S. Navy. After four years of military service, he was honorably discharged in 1980. Working as a fire fighter for Prince George's County Fire Department, Andre diligently served his country. After nineteen years of faithful service, he retired due to his health. Indeed Andre was a lively, fun-loving person. He loved to sing and dance. Football is a sport that Andre very much enjoyed. He played for Servo during his high school years. Andre will be remembered as a kind, dependable and giving person. Andre leaves to cherish his memory: devoted parents, Forest C. and Annie Bell Gwynn; brother, Perry Lee Gwynn; two nieces, Yolanda Killian (Douglas Killian) and Ericka Mompont Tommy Mompont; three nephews, Forest C. Gwynn III, Marcel Gwynn and Perry Lee Gwynn, Jr.; one stepdaughter, Trinita Strange; one step-granddaughter, Tyshir Coppage; many aunts, uncles, cousins, a host of other relatives and friends.
