

Andre Demond Hilton

June 17, 1979 - October 13, 2013

ANDRE DEMOND HILTON, son of Lendora Leonard and the late Rufus Johnnie Hilton (a.k.a RJ), was born on June 17, 1979 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the younger of two children and he was affectionately known as “DRE.” Andre was called home to rest October 13, 2013 early in the morning. He started his education from Robert W. Coleman Elementary School to William H. Lemmel Middle School and to Frederick Douglass High School. Andre’s sister Rashema C. Hilton and his father Rufus Johnnie Hilton preceded him in death.

Andre enjoyed listening music, being a DJ, watching the Food Network, cooking, entertaining his family, and he enjoyed decorating his Tahoe. He also had a spirit of helping people when in need. He occasionally did some mechanic work.

Andre leaves to mourn his mother, Lendora Hilton; his children, D’Andre, Denaya and Corey; two nieces, Myiesha and Miya; his aunts, Elder Janie Hilton; a special aunt, Lillie Matthews, Annie Morant and Ruth Hurtt all from Baltimore, Maryland; one aunt, Minister Carrie (Bishop Tommie) Durant from Pensacola, Florida; four uncles, Deacon Johnnie (Carolyn) Hilton, Rufus Guy Hilton, James (Carolyn) Leonard and John Leonard; another aunt, Elizabeth Hilton of Baltimore, Maryland; and his godmother – aunt/ Minister, Dorothy Singletary of Baltimore, Maryland. He also leaves to mourn a very close friend, Alex Graves, Melissa Yanes, Gary Richardson, Marty and Billy; and a host of other relatives and other friends.

“ *To the family of Andre Demond Hilton:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ May your family draw comfort and strength during this most difficult time from the beautiful promises made to us from our very loving Creator. He promises to bring your dearly beloved Andre back to life in the resurrection right here on earth and to swallow up sickness, suffering, sorrow and death forever.

S.George - October 16, 2013 at 07:33 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
