

Andre Kenneth Haney

May 18, 1963 - October 28, 2009

ANDRE KENNETH HANEY, JR., son of Betty Jean Haney and Andre Kenneth Haney Sr., was born on May 18, 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on October 28, 2009. Andre received his high school diploma from Eastern High School in 1982. At the age of sixteen he gained employment at the Howard Johnson in Lutherville. Since that time, he had numerous jobs. Andre had a strong work ethics, working hard at whatever he did. Many knew him for his cleanliness, as he was always cleaning the neighborhood. The late Amanda Jenkins (grandmother) raised Andre, along with his siblings and cousins, in the church with fear and admiration of the Lord. During Andre's junior year in high school, he met Trina Johnson. Out of their loving relationship Andre Kenneth Haney III and Crystal Lashell Haney were conceived. Andre, despite his circumstances, was always happy. You could hear his distinctive laughter among crowds. He loved to crack jokes and would remind you that the joke was not in disrespect. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Betty J. Haney; father, Andre K. Haney Sr.; son, Andre K. Haney III; daughter, Crystal L. Haney; four grandchildren, Dariyon, Deondre, Taniya and Daeshawn; two sisters, Athea McCullegan and Banita McCullegan; Twilla Taylor and Pastor Angela Taylor; nine nieces, one nephew, four great-nieces, three great-nephews (and one on the way); five aunts, Janet Haney, Gwendolyn Somerville, Marie Lang, Cheryl Haney, Jan Haney and Corine from New York; and two uncles, Michael Haney and Seaton Haney.

“ I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Andre Kenneth Haney Jr. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you continue to rely and find comfort in reading the Bible.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##

“ It is hard to carry this load, but God knows all things. I love my cousin, Andre, and want others to know he was a loving person that cared about many. Andre may not have been able to extend himself to everyone, but his heart was in the right place. We all lose focus on the goodness in life, but must move forward to living- in faith, with hope and God's deliverance. Life is good, let us all make the best of it.##imported-begin##Twillla##imported-end##

“ Hello, my name is Jordan. The loss of your son is devastating, but their will be hope for him. God will remember your son and he will bring him back to life. John 5:28,29 is proof of that statement. I hope that will give you something to hope for! With Love, Jordan.
