

Andre M. Day

April 8, 1964 - January 25, 2010

Andre Martin Day began his eternal journey home on January 25, 2010, after a lengthy illness. Andre, the last child born to the late Albert and Susie Day on April 8, 1964, was baptized as an infant at St. Pius Catholic Church. "Stone" as he was affectionately called, received his education in the Baltimore City Public School system. He maintained employment with several construction companies for numerous years until he became disabled due to his illness. Stone had a unique sense of humor which included, telling jokes and "making up" hilarious raps at the drop of a hat-but was also blessed with a sincere, calm side that enjoyed watching television and spending time with his children. He definitely loved life and was always willing to help others. He will truly be missed. Andre was preceded in death by two brothers, George and Wayne Day; and three sisters, Patricia Carter, Hilda and Jacqueline Day. He leaves to mourn: two daughters, Andrea and Sydnei Day; one son, Christopher Burnett; two grandchildren, Jazmine and Ming; five sisters, Dorothy Horton-Brown, Charlene and Linda Day, Risa Day-Jackson and Angela R. Day-Scott; three brothers, Lawrence, David and Mark Day; two sisters-in-law, Sandra and Tina Day; two brothers-in-law, Jay Brown and Kevin Scott; one aunt, Mildred Mason of St. Mary's County, MD; cherished friends, Dwayne Jones, Edwina (Weenie) Murray, Cal Butler; a host of nieces, nephews and numerous relatives and friends.

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Mr. Day's family and friends. The untimely loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1 Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope by stating: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Andre M. Day. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
