

Andrea Brehon

August 28, 1944 - January 1, 2013

ANDREA S. TUCKER was born on August 28, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Andrew and Mildred Tucker. She departed this life on January 1, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

She graduated from Dunbar High School in June of 1961. Andrea began working at the United States Coast Guard in August of 1963 and retired after over forty-seven years of dedicated service, as a Contract Specialist, on June 3, 2011.

Andrea did not attend church on a regular basis but she accepted Jesus as her Lord and Saviour. She often had bible study with her sister Glenda and her girlfriend Cindy.

She married Arnold Brehon and from this union one son was born, Arnold Brehon Jr.

Andrea was a very calm-natured person who never liked to argue or cause confusion. Always a lady, she was very meticulous, every strand of hair in place and always neat as a pin. Even as a child she never got her clothes dirty, unlike her younger siblings whom she referred to as "dirt balls." She went to the beauty and nail salon every week. Andrea was very fond of her hair stylist Mary and her nail stylist Dori.

Andrea's favorite saying was, "Get over it." Andrea loved her family and enjoyed when they got together for cookouts and holiday dinners. She had few girlfriends but her sisters were her true girlfriends. The biggest joys in her life were her son and grandchildren. Andrea and her son were very close and when her grandchildren were born she became the total grandmother.
