

Andrea Gail Higgins

September 1, 1955 - October 11, 2018

Andrea Gail Higgins, beloved daughter of the late William L. Higgins and the late Brenda Scott, departed this life on October 11, 2018, after a lengthy illness. Andrea was the eldest of three children born in Baltimore, Maryland on September 1, 1955, raised by her grandmother, the late Leila Cottman.

She had two sisters, Tammy White and the late Kim Scott who preceded her in death. Andrea had three uncles who preceded her in death, Joseph Cottman, Delegate Tony Fulton and Terry Fulton.

Andrea (Andee) as she was affectionately known, attended Northwestern High School, where she loved going to school games and singing in competitions.

Andee was a friend to all and she had a great love for all animals. She was employed as an executive Secretary at Crown Central Petroleum Corp. She attended Baltimore Studio of Hair Design where she received her beautician's license and managing license. Andee enjoyed styling and cutting hair, of which she has won many awards. She also earned an Esthetician's license. Andee also loved modeling, and she participated in many shows.

She leaves to mourn: one sister, Tammy White; two nieces, Courtney Bratley and Keisha Thomas; aunt, Carolyn Hampton; uncle, Jimmy Hampton, Sr.;

cousins, Derick,, Kimmy, Jr., Keith, Sr., Jineara, Danita, Stefanie, Ayeshia, Brandon, Nancy and Sierra; two God-Daughters, Tonika Custalow-Stuart and Adenika Watkins; special friends, Butch Skinner, Toni, Gloria, Sandy, Debbie, Simone, and Lauren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ GMommy 💕💕 GDaughter FOREVER!

A Godmother is a one-and-only lady in a child's life. She's chosen with care and invited to offer love, counsel, wisdom and encouragement. They have the privileged position of being an advocate, friend and confidant for life. Someone the child can turn to as a friend who loves them as their family.

A Goddaughter brings a special joy that comes from deep within. And, as she grows into adulthood, she fills your heart with pride and shows her gratitude. You may be physically gone but your energy is ever so present. I miss so you mommy. Until we meet again. Love Nika 🌹❤️
