

Andrew Boyd

March 14, 1930 - December 28, 2008

ANDREW BOYD was born March 14, 1930, to Amy Lee Davis and James Boyd in Littleton, North Carolina. He moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1948, and began his life-long dream of starting and raising a family, owning his very own home and being a guiding force for those around him. In 1960, he married Mary F. Drummond and from this union there were two children, Ronald of Baltimore, and Kathy L., who now resides in Pennsylvania. He worked for forty-four years at the Bethlehem Steel Sparrows Point Plant. His occupation was oiler and in the history of his tenure, he was only absent from work twice. He also worked as a taxi driver in the city of Baltimore. His diligence and work ethic were very obvious and he strived to set a good example for his children, as well as many other young family members. Uncle Andrew, as he was affectionately known, was quick to give advice, and often would spend hours on the phone with someone who may have been troubled or in doubt. He was pretty well-known to have a long list of quips, which he would spout whenever the need arose. "Live as long as you can, but don't get old," or "Better to have and not need than to need and not have." He also had a rather hidden sense of humor. He seemed to always be in the mood for a good clean joke, or a funny story. His laughter was infectious. He was very familiar with the music world, as he enjoyed guitar and organ. Another one of his favorite pastimes was playing pool. Uncle Andrew was rather competitive, but he made the game fun. On Sunday, December 28, 2008, our beloved Andrew was called to his final stage of rest. Uncle Andrew leaves to mourn: three children, Kathy L.

Boyd-Carter of Philadelphia, PA, Ronald I. Boyd of Baltimore, MD and Ronnie Davis of Plymouth Meeting, PA; two brothers, Nathaniel Karim of Baltimore, MD and Howard Boyd, of Cinnamonsin, NJ; brother-in-law, Oris Drummond of LaCrosse, VA, two sisters-in-law, Mildred Drummond of Baltimore, MD and Eliza Boyd of Norfolk, VA.; one daughter-in-law, Debbie Davis of Plymouth Meeting, PA and Derrick Carter of Ft. Lauderdale, FL. Uncle Andrew also leaves a host of nieces, nephews and other family and friends.

“ To The Family of Mr. Andrew Boyd, I am so very sorry for the loss of your loved one. The Bible speaks of a time in the near future when the last enemy death will be brought to nothing (1Cor15:26). I hope that you can find comfort in knowing that Jehovah God is yearning to bring about the time when we will all be able to welcome our family and friends back by means of a resurrection (John 5:28-29). “ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.###imported-begin###Sharon Hill###imported-end##

“ I offer my deepest sympathy for your loss. Andrew had a wonderful smile, and I'm sure a big heart, and I can imagine how much you miss him. Death is so sad, and it is something God didnot desire for none of us. He created all life and he hates death, and he views it as our worst enemy. This is why he promises at 1st Cor 15:26; "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Most families will lose a loved one, and all through life we experience pain and sorrow in one form or another. But notice this wonderful promise from Jehovah. At Isaiah 65:17 he promises: "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth and the former things will not be brought to mind; neither will they come up into the heart." So even the memories of tragic events we all go through will be erased from our memories. Only good things; happy things in store for those who love God and his son Jesus. One day a reuniting of the living with their loved ones who have passed away. What a wonderful hope the ressurection is; but it is a sure hope made possible through the precious blood of our saviour, Christ Jesus. John 5:28,29 promises that the dead will hear the voice of Jesus calling them back from the memorial tombs. May these promises from God give you much comfort, and help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin###R Johnson##imported-end##
