

Andrew Brown

November 6, 1952 - November 22, 2017

Andrew Brown, son of the late Raymond and Bertha Brown, was born on November 6, 1952. After a lengthy illness and courageous battle, he departed this life on November 22, 2017.

Andrew was educated in the Baltimore Public School System. He also served in the military and received an honorable discharge. He then went to work on numerous jobs until his health began to decline. He enjoyed dancing and roller skating with the (LOW RIDERS). He also enjoyed traveling to different places to skate.

We would like to give a special thanks to our brothers Homeboy, Wingman, SideKick, Running Buddy and on Occasion Lookout to William Slater. When you saw Andrew you saw you Slater—a friend to the end, we love you Slater.

The family also would like to give our cousin Katrina Frisby a special thanks for taking care of Andrew, all of his doctors appointments. The administration of his medication and staying with him every day after work. Thank you, Katrina.

Andrew leaves to cherish his memory: brother,

Raymond Brown; two sisters, Gertrude Brown Lee and Theresa German; brother-in-law, Samuel Lee; granddaughter, Denasha Banks; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Andrew is preceded in death by his son, Brian Brown and two brothers, Theodore Brown and Jerome Frisby.

“ Chicken and I have been friends over 20 years maybe longer, he was the type of person that always talked a bunch of smack and made you laugh. He would tell everybody that we came in contact with when we would be some place together that I was the reason that he dropped out of school(smile) he would say this woman got me to hook school one day and I haven't been back since. I will miss him and I pray that he is at peace. From your friend Sandra Mayfield
