“ Please accept my sincere condolences. May the wonderful hope of the resurrection bring you much comfort during this difficult time. The bible at Acts 24;15 lets us know that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous, and John 5:28,29 lets us know that all those in the memorial tombs will one day hear the voice of Jesus, and come out to a resurrection of life. May your precious memories of Andrew comfort you in the days ahead, and help you to cope with losing him.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am sending my condolences . When we lose a love one it breaks the family circle of life.Mr.Lewis was a outgoing person and enjoyed life. The bible shows that our heavenly father cares as 1 Peter 5:7 says. There are many things to do in the near future. May all the precious things shared with Mr. Andrew help to support you all in the days to come.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Lewis, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
