

Andrew Ervin

March 13, 1932 - March 14, 2019

On March 14, 2019 our Lord and Savior called on His child, ANDREW ERVIN, after battling a lengthy illness.

Known to his beloved family as Pop-Pop or Uncle Hoagie, he will always be missed.

Born in Baltimore, Maryland on March 13, 1932, Andrew was the last surviving child born to Robert (deceased) and Equlear (deceased) Ervin.

Andrew was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System.

Andrew was united in holy matrimony to Lillie for 60+ vibrant years. From this union Andrew raised three sons, Arthur Page Sr. (deceased), Gregory Page and Rodney Higgins.

Andrew was an active member of the U.S. Marine Corps during his early years. Andrew then began a lifelong career of 35 years at the Elkridge Country Club where he worked as Bar Manager until retirement. Andrew was a connoisseur of exquisite cuisine and fine spirits. Andrew enjoyed life to the fullest.

Andrew earned a section at the club's bar called "Andy's Bar" where he created his own drink called the "Frozen Bourbon". Although Andrew was not a big drinker he would occasionally enjoy a glass of red wine as long as it was aged over time and of good quality.

Enjoying life to its fullest was important to Andrew, but he was most happy traveling with his lovely "Lillie" seeing the world and all it had to offer. Let us remember Andrew as a man of debonair style. Andrew leaves to celebrate his
