“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Avis,

Please accept the deepest and heartfelt sympathies of the children of your aunt Mae Scott. All of us really do not know you because you left Virginia at an early age. We can only offer you support and God's blessings on the lost of your brother A.D.

We have been where you are today because of the loss of two siblings. May you find courage to face the days ahead as you lean on God' everlasting arm.

I am the eldest of the first-cousins on your father's side and I feel really bad that I don't know you. We all would like to see you And be there with you at your time of need, but the way it looks now we will not be able to attend the services.

I have your address and I promise that you will hear from me. I will keep you and yours in my daily prayers.

*Your cousin,
Rita*
