

Andrew DeWitt Harvey

February 6, 1935 - August 6, 2017

Andrew Dewitt Harvey was born February 6, 1935 to the late Mary Edythe Kelly and Benjamin Andrew Harvey Sr. in Baltimore, MD. On August 6, 2017, God called Andrew home to rest.

At an early age, while attending Metropolis United Church, he accepted Jesus as his Savior. During these years, he was active in the Methodist Youth Fellowship program, Bible study, and the Drum and Bugle Corps.

He was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools, graduated from Frederick Douglass Senior High February 1953. Upon his graduation, he entered Howard University in Washington, D.C. where he stayed until February 1955. At that time, he enlisted in the United States Air Force where he was in airborne electronics. In 1957, while on active duty, Andrew married Yvonne R. Washington and from this union were born Andrew D. Harvey Jr. and Cheryl D. Harvey. He was honorably discharged in December 1958 as Airman First Class.

In January 1959, he went to work for Bethlehem Steel where he worked on the shipyard until he returned to Howard University in September 1959. Upon graduating, he came back to Baltimore and began his teaching career. He obtained a Master's Degree from Coppin State University in Baltimore, MD. Andrew also attended Towson State University, the University of Maryland

College Park, and Loyola College as he completed courses for teaching career.

In 1966, Andrew married Alice V. Shields and from this union were born the late Michael D. Harvey Sr., and Benjamin S. Harvey Sr.

He started as a substitute teacher at Charles Houston Jr. High (#181) IN 1962 and in 1963 he moved to Clifton Park Jr. High (#90). He then became Department Head at Samuel Gompers (#298). At Garrison Jr. High/Middle (#42), he served as Assistant Principle from 1976-1983 and Principle from 1983 until 1995 when he retired.

Andrew enjoyed traveling during his retirement years. He was very mild-mannered person who assisted anyone who needed a helping hand. Andrew was also a life member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. Inc., and a past President of Phi Delta Kappa Johns Hopkins University Chapter. He enjoyed working on the church deacon board at Gillis Memorial Christian Community Church and he loved his chorus, the T.C. Jackson Jr. Male Chorus Reading the Bible and studying God's word was his favorite pastime at home.

Andrew leaves to cherish memory; his beloved wife Alice V. Harvey and children Andrew D. Harvey Jr. (Zakia Harvey) Cheryl D. Harvey; six grandchildren Remi Jordan (Johnathan Jordan), Rubin Havey, Christian Washington-Harvey, Nenjanin S. Harvey, Jr. (Janee Harvey), Michael D Harvey Jr. who departed him before death, Bria A. Harvey, and Madison Davis, seven great-grandchildren and a host of in-laws, family, friends, and colleagues. His grandson, Michael D. Harvey Jr. preceeded him.

“ Dewitt will always be an important part of my definition of a mentor. What a great MAN that worshiped God, a great father, husband, grandfather, and cousin. No doubt that he unconditionally loved everyone and recognized and knew where his blessings came from. He has always been there for the Shields family with an encouraging word, and his presence. Truly he will be missed but I know his loving memory will always resonate in our heart. Love your cousin Barbara & Norman Wiley
