

Andrew Henson

November 12, 1952 - December 9, 2011

ANDREW BERNARD HENSON, JR. was the son of Andrew Bernard Henson, Sr. and the late Vera Henson. He was born on November 12, 1952 and passed away on December 9, 2011.

Andrew was born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland where he attended the Baltimore City Public School System. In 1970, he graduated with honors from Carver Technical High where he became a brick mason and lettered in track and field. In 1972 he married Donna Bussie and from this union he had one daughter, Kelli Henson. After working as a brick mason for several years, Andrew became employed at the Social Security Administration where he worked for thirty-seven years until he retired.

Andrew was an avid sports fan. He loved playing basketball, football, baseball and ran track. Its hard to say which was his favorite because he won championships in all of them except baseball. His first championship came in track and field where he ran sprints and relays for Easterwood Park.

Andrew had a magnetic personality and acquired many friends over the years. Everyone who met Andrew loved him, particularly his best friend of sixteen years, Marion Stanley, whom he affectionately called Cindy. They shared happy times traveling to Atlantic City, playing cards and eating out at restaurants, especially buffets. Cindy and her parents gave Andrew great support during the last sixteen years of his life.

He leaves to mourn: his father, Andrew B. Henson, Sr.; one son, Andrew B. Henson, III; one daughter, Kelli Henson; one brother, Keith L. Henson (wife Darlene); two sisters, Renee Y. Henson and Nikki D. Farrar (husband Jamiel); four nieces, Danielle Montague, Erica Henson, Adriane Askew and Dea Henson; two nephews, Vincent Lamont Edison, Sr. and Christopher Edison; one great-nephew, Vincent Edison, Jr.; two great-neices, Vera Edison and Mallorie Watkins; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, relatives and friends.

“ My condolences to your family. Please take comfort in knowing that the bible promises us the hope of a resurrection at John 5:28,29.

Ms. Howard - December 14, 2011 at 10:38 AM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Ms Springer - December 12, 2011 at 04:42 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

Drew was one of the funniest people I have ever met. He was always upbeat and fun loving and a sports fanatic. The world needs plenty more people like him. God knew he was sick and gave him his rest. God Bless your family and be thankful that he brought joy to our lives. Be strong and cherish his loving memories.
