“ I have had the best amazing man in my life for 50 years. I was blessed to be able to celebrate a milestone with you this year. You were there for my kids and me anytime I needed you. You have taught me to be strong and I promise you that I will be always. We had a lot of laughs and good memories with you and your stories ❤️ . I want the world to know you was not only my uncle but a wonderful father figure in my life. Love and missing dearly. This hard for me knowing that you are not here but you are with God now I am at peace. Love and miss you my uncle daddy Grip ❤️ ❤️

“ My dearest long time friend(family) I was so saddened when I received the message and phone call last week you were no longer with us. It will never be the same without your presence or hear your silly laugh but you will forever be in my heart. So many memories and I'm so glad God gave me a chance to share Tim with you (godfather) and y'all shared Nikki with me. 💔 until we meet again.

Hello Sweetheart. I know your heart feels empty but your Uncle Grip loved his family and put nothing before y'all. I will miss his crazy laugh and him calling me Dafy Newton sometimes Dot. We all had good times eating crabs or seafood over the gardens back yard and never forget those darn dogs. Well so much love from all of us but he is at heavenly rest. Memories will forever be our way of coping with his absence. Praying for all of you and love you all family.
