Andrew Leo Jackson was born April 19, 1950 in West Virginia. He was preceded in death by his parents, Lois McIntosh and Clifton Jackson and grandson, Amari Johnson.

Leo graduated from Armstrong High School and retired from GRTC. He was a bowler for years in the Richmond area participating in tournaments in the local area and out of state events winning numerous bowling awards. Gospel music was Leo's passion, and he was a member of the Gospel Proclaimers in his later years. His first claim to fame was as a member of Willie Jones & The Gospel Sensations with the hit single "God is Real." He was a member of Christ Center Gospel Fellowship Church, where he was active in the music ministry.

He leaves to cherish his memory daughter, Kimberly Jackson; sons, Kevin Jackson, Andrew Rivers (Stenata), Dennard Jackson (Bridgette), Andrew Johnson, Kevin Jackson and Cortney Jackson; sister, Jocelyn Keith (Clarence); seven grandchildren, Jabril, Kaleb, De'Quan, Eric, Andrew, Aiden, Alani; one niece, Whitney Keith a great nephew; a devoted aunt and uncle, Thomas and Helen Wilson and cousin Warren Lee and a host of other family members and friends.

Time Never Cries

Today, I say goodnight before I kiss your eyes, please don't grieve for me, as we all know time never cries.

Hold on to the smiles, the love, the joy and release the pain.
We'll dance forever, sunshine after the rain.
How can I complain? No more struggle in my veins. This beautiful body of mine has released me from its chains.

I hear your wishes, I feel your kisses, Y'all got me blushing. I've just escaped all the suffering. Until we meet again, never lose that sparkle in your eyes. Tuck me away in your eyes and don't forget....Time Never Cries.
