

Andrew L. Fowler

December 4, 1976 - July 28, 2008

ANDREW LEE FOWLER JR. was born on December 4, 1976, in Blytheville, Arkansas to Andrew and Audrey Fowler. He was known to family and friends as Junior. Junior was the second of two children, one girl and one boy. Junior was baptized into Christ in 1993 at the Rancho Cordova Church of Christ in Rancho Cordova, California. Junior attended Cordova High School through the eleventh grade. He completed his high school education at A.J. Dimond High School in Anchorage, Alaska. He continued his education at Sacramento City College and California State University, Sacramento. He began his professional career as a phone banker for Wells Fargo Corporation. Later, in the interest of progressing, he accepted a position with the call center at Golden One Credit Union where he worked until the time of his death. Junior leaves to cherish his memory and mourn his passing: his mother and father, Audrey and Andrew Fowler Sr. of Belcamp, Maryland; sister, Angela Fowler of Woodbridge, Virginia; step-grandmother, Lorraine Townsend of Bronx, New York; fourteen aunts, one great-aunts, eight uncles, one great-uncle and a host of cousins and friends.

“ Dear Family, My sincere condolences goes out to you. At times we may feel lost when someone we love dies. However, bible accounts and Almighty God own promise assures us that "all those in their memorial tombs" will be resurrected; John 5:28,29. Please take the time to read that promise and find a measure of comfort during this time of bereavement.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##
