

Andrew M. Burrell

June 14, 1924 - May 20, 2005

Andrew M. Burrell, son of the late Anna Mae and William Burrell, was born on June 14, 1924 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on May 20, 2005. Andrew received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was inducted into the United States Army during World War II and was honorably discharged December 1945. He married the late Betty Barton and from this union were two daughters. Later he married Helen L. Whitaker. Andrew worked for the Baltimore County school system for years before his retirement. Those who knew "Andy" could really enjoy his love for music, especially jazz, and his love for clothes. You only had to meet him one time, and you would have a true friend forever! He leaves to mourn: his wife, Helen; two daughters, Maxine Woodland and Myra Rosenberg; one grandson, Christopher Woodland; two sons-in-law, Charles Woodland and Paul Rosenberg; three sisters, Joan Williams, Leona Brown and Gloria Rucker; one brother-in-law, Ulysses Williams; one sister-in-law, Jacqueline Goode; and a host of nieces, nephews and many friends.

“ *To my brother, his wife and her family. God, Thank You for always being there for me no matter what I face. I have not always understood why I was going through certain things; however, I do not have to understand, because You are God and You are in control, in spite of my lack of understanding. I trust You, and look to You in faith and You will come and save me, and bring me an answer. You never fail any of us who look to You. Lord, please remove all the sorrow and grief I feel. Heal this pain I feel in my heart and help me to trust You more. Fill this empty place in my heart with more of Your Spirit. I ask this in the name of the Lord, Jesus Christ. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
