

Andrew Queen

August 21, 1935 - December 28, 2015

ANDREW QUEEN, son of the late Harry and Maggie Queen was born in Baltimore, Maryland on August 20, 1935, After a lengthy illness, our Savior called him home on December 28, 2015.

Andrew received his formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

At an early age he gave his life to Christ at First Charity Baptist Church. Andrew worked as a dental assistant, where he enjoyed making false teeth.

As years went by. Andrew changed his career and started working for Bank of America as a custodian until he retired, Andrew met the love of his life, the former Fannie Cottingham, they were married for forty - four years. He enjoyed his family and loved making them laugh, telling jokes and old stories He also loved listening to jazz and watching old movies and westerns. His favorite was playing the daily lottery. His favorite foods were corn beef sandwiches and steak fish. When you would see him, his smile lit up a room. You would always see him in a suit, tie and hat. Andrew was not just a uncle. He was father that was very pleasant, caring and humble. He will be truly missed.

He was preceded in death by: his wife, Fannie Queen: parents, Harry and Maggie Queen: sisters and brothers, James Harry, Jr. John Amelia, Robert, Walter and Mable; and grandson, Anthony H. Bessick.

He leaves to mourn: one sister, Dorothy Queen, a devoted and lovely niece, Debra Mason; one step-daughter, Shirley Foreman; one son-in-law, Leroy Foreman; ten grandchildren, twenty -three great-grandchildren; he is also survived by two devoted friends until the end, Mrs. Frances Nickelson and Melinda Turner; a host of other nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
