

Andrew Smallwood

February 28, 1958 - December 21, 2005

ANDREW SMALLWOOD, son of Mae Smallwood and the late Johnnie James Smallwood, was born on February 28, 1958 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He departed this life on December 21, 2005, very suddenly. Andrew received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and later joined the United States Army, where he served for several years. Cooking was Andrew's forte, which he loved with a passion, and after returning from the armed forces, he pursued positions in the cooking field. He landed his first job at the Barge, a very prestigious restaurant, and after the Barge closed, Andrew held cooking positions in many fine restaurants in the Baltimore area. Andrew married the late Deborah Bowen. Andrew was very friendly and mild mannered and made numerous friends and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew and loved him. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Mae Smallwood; two sisters, Patricia and Arlene; one brother, Bradford Smallwood; one niece, Diana Harris; two nephews, Kentwan Russell and Darian Rouzer; one great-niece, Tiarra; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
