Sending you a hug love & miss you alot Aunt Angie! The holidays is here...:0(....I know that this was always your favorite time of the year!! I miss your smile, and jokes!!! How we always would would enjoy your funny stories!! One of my fondest childest thoughts of you was how excited I use to be to get on the school bus in the morning...How you helped dress me, and get me all ready. You would walk me out to the bus to get on, and as soon as I hit the first step on the bus...I would CRY, YEII, KICK, and FALLOUT!! lol....you would have to just take me back in the house, and I would be fine, once I knew I was staying home with you....I did this EVERYTIME....once I saw it always got me back in the house ....smh...I wished that YELLING, and FALLOUT would make you come back ...but I know Gods will was done. I accept your passing, and I will forever hold on to the memories you left with me. You are and always will be missed by us all!!!

“ To the family. I could not imagine such a loss, so I ask that you please accept my wholehearted condolences, knowing that I surely could not fully understand how you feel. I would just like to leave you with a comforting scripture that gives us not only hope for the future, but also some relief in our time of mourning. John the 5th chapter, verses 28 and 29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." Yes, in the very near future we will have the wonderful opportunity to welcome our dead loved ones who have fallen asleep in death back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29) May the words found in the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ God looked around his Garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. His Garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best. He saw your path was difficult, he closed you tired eyes, He whispered to you "Peace be Thine" and gave you wings to fly. When we saw you sleeping so calm and free of pain, We would not wish you back to earth to suffer once again. You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide, You live on through your sisters, brothers, mom, nieces, and nephews you're always by our side. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone. For part of us went with you on the day God called you home. “ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in his Word the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which talks about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May these provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I was so saddened to hear about the passing of Angie, she was such a pillar of faith for me and my family in our time of grief. I will miss her laugh and just talking to her. But I know the Lord has open his arms and said welcome home good and faithful servant. The Wheeler Family##imported-begin##Marcie Wheeler##imported-end##
